

PIFIS

University: Corvinus

Program: MA in International Relations

Preparatory Price: 5500€ in total

Entry requirements to preparatory program: English level: min. A2,
Good high school grades

MA Description: The MA in International Relations will prepare you for an international career. Throughout the programme, you will follow major global events and political and economic occurrences, which you will discuss and debate in classes.

You will gain a deeper understanding of the ongoing global trends and international conflicts and participate in visits to various institutions and workshops – honing soft skills like communication, problem-solving, cooperation and analysis, highly valued by employers.

Acquire high-level competence in foreign languages, explore negotiating techniques and the rules of protocol and become a polished professional. The programme has a multidisciplinary scope with a strong emphasis on diplomacy, international legal and world economics dimensions, which will equip you to excel in your global career.

They accept students from a range of academic and professional backgrounds, provided you are passionate and knowledgeable about world affairs and meet the minimum credit requirements. However, a strong background in international relations, international studies or social sciences would equip you well for the programme.

Entry requirements to MA program: Min. 785 points on the final TOEIC exam
BA/BSc diploma from a relevant field
Passing the oral entrance exam
An essay with references has to be attached to the admission documentation on a given IR topic.