

PIFIS

University: Budapest Business School – University of Applied Sciences

Program: MA in International Relations

Preparatory Price: 5500€ in total

Entry requirements to preparatory program: English level: min. A1,
Good high school grades

MA Description: The aim of our Masters program is to train professionals with a broad social science education who will understand the theoretical and practical contexts of international political, economic and trade relations. They will acquire a high level of analytical skills in addition to theoretical (civilization, world economics, international law, political theory) and practical (diplomatic, linguistic, negotiation and protocol) knowledge.

Students studying for a Masters degree in International Relations will be able to:

- Undertake an in-depth analysis of the foreign policy of a given world political conflict and crisis, as well as the economic, political and social context of a given region, using the acquired interdisciplinary knowledge they have gained.
- Familiarize themselves with the decision-making mechanisms of various international organizations and understand the main foreign policy decision-making mechanisms of each major world power.
- Manage the international partner network of an organization, organize and conduct negotiations with enterprises, international organizations and authorities of other countries.

Entry requirements to MA program: Min. 785 points on the final TOEIC exam
Passing the oral entrance exam
BSc/BA diploma from a relevant field