MSc Description: International Economy and Business is a unique business-economics hybrid programme. This programme will mould you into a well-rounded, pragmatic professional - comfortable with complex economic theory, but capable to apply it to solve real-world problems and become a leader.

You will benefit from a sound methodological foundation in multiple disciplines, from statistics to trade and intellectual property. Strengthen your theoretical background and through soft skill development and building your emotional intelligence you will use it to your benefit.

For admission onto the International Economy and Business programme, you will typically hold an economics, business or finance degree.

This programme may also be a good fit for you if you have a similar academic background, such as Human Resources (HR), Management, Commerce, Marketing, Accounting, Tourism or International Relations (provided you meet the compulsory credit requirements stated below).

Entry requirements to MSc program: Min. 785 points on the final TOEIC exam
Passing the oral entrance exam
BSc/BA diploma from a relevant field
Motivation letter and online test about International Economics and actual issues of world economy
